NETAPP UNIVERSITY

Technical Positioning of OnCommand System Manager

COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course describes the key features and capabilities of NetApp® OnCommand® System Manager. This course enables you to position OnCommand System Manager to your technical audiences and to recognize the value proposition of and the business justification for deploying OnCommand System Manager.

DELIVERY TYPE
Web-based training (WBT)

DURATION
30 minutes

AUDIENCE
NetApp employees and partner SEs

TRAINING UNITS
None

PREREQUISITES
ABCs of OnCommand System Manager

OBJECTIVES
By the end of this course, you should be able to:
- Describe the unique capabilities of OnCommand System Manager
- Identify customer needs, in regard to management of a storage system or a cluster
- Explain how OnCommand System Manager can help customers manage their storage systems and clusters
- Position OnCommand System Manager by using customer scenarios

PRICING AND CANCELLATION POLICY
For pricing and cancellation information, see the NetApp University LearningCenter.

NOTE: If you are registering for this course with an Authorized Learning Partner, review the partner’s pricing and cancellation policy.